Description

Stefan Kushima is a young artist from Linz, Austria. He comes up with a great release consisting of three drone-pieces. Two short pieces "Loreley" (2 min.) and "Balaklava Rust" (6 min.) embrace the monumental 25-minute-opus "Crumble Stray".

Multiple warm and vibrant sound-patterns are layered together to a impressive wall of sound. Like a big wave sounds swell to a climax, implode and ebb away into a more calm and gloomy maelstrom of various sonic sources to swell again, again and again.

All parts of this puzzle based on repetitive guitar figures, violin patterns or other self-built instruments which gives the whole release this unique warm, natural and hand-made touch.

Let there be noise!
